Thank you to our Sponsors & Exhibitors!

Welcome!

We, the Library Boards Association of Nova Scotia (LBANS), welcome you to the 2016 NSLA/LBANS Conference.

May your time with us this weekend be a profitable one for the knowledge that you acquire and take back to your respective libraries, and for friendships that will be renewed as you attend the different events.

We thank each and everyone for the valuable knowledge that you impart to others.

Library Boards Association of Nova Scotia

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Board of Directors of the Nova Scotia Library Association, welcome to the 2016 Annual Conference! We are delighted that you are here this weekend. We are certain that this year's conference will be a good and informative professional development experience, one that introduces new ideas and allows you to share knowledge and practices with others.

We hope that this year's theme – Sense of Place: you, your community, your library, your work – resonates with you and positively affirms the collegial and allied reality of who we are and what we do with where we live and work.

For this weekend, in this beautiful place by the water and surrounded by the splendor of nature, we hope you will relax, have fun, and enjoy the outdoors and the leisure experiences offered.

Thank you for coming, and have a great conference!

Cindy Lelliott

Nova Scotia Library Association (NSLA)

Keynote Speaker

Elena Madison
Project for Public Spaces

Elena Madison is a Vice President at Project for Public Spaces and a veteran of Placemaking. She is an urban planner with rich experience in the planning and design of parks, plazas, campuses, civic and cultural institutions. An expert in collaborative visioning, concept development as well as management and programming for public spaces; she works closely with designers, economic development experts and public space managers to seamlessly bring the concepts developed in the public visioning process through design development and into implementation. She is currently working on placemaking initiatives in Detroit's Belle Isle and Campus Martius, at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts in Richmond; at Houston's Central Library; on Astor Place in New York City; and at the healing gardens of Stanford University's Medical Center.

Elena has been the keynote speaker, presenter and trainer at numerous national and international conferences, seminars and convenings. Most recently she was a featured trainer in Penang, Malaysia with partners ThinkCity; the main trainer at the Lively Cities kick-off meeting in Aberdeen, Scotland – a transnational public space project of the European Union for North West Europe and a featured trainer at the Public Spaces as a Catalyst for Sustainability, Culture and Social Justice training in Johannesburg, South Africa.

In her own community of Jackson Heights, Queens she is a founding member of the Jackson Heights Green Alliance, a grassroots group organizing the 78th Play Street/Plaza in an effort to expand public space in the neighborhood. Elena's community-based efforts include also the Place and Play Grassroots Fund – a joint initiative of Project for Public Spaces and Playborhood.com aiming at linking grassroots activism to tangible improvements to parks, play, and public spaces at the local level.
