Fact Checker

by: Kelley, Austin

Mirthful, laugh-out-loud funny, and surprisingly philosophical, FACT CHECKER is a brilliant DEBUT novel featuring a single-minded investigator yearning for meaning, morality, and accuracy in an increasingly post-truth world. "Mandeville/Green" was a light, breezy look at a local farm called New Egypt, whose Ramapo tomatoes were quickly becoming the summer's hottest produce. At first glance, the story seemed straightforward, but one line made the Fact Checker pause: a stray quote from a New Egypt volunteer named Sylvia making a cryptic reference to "nefarious business" at the farmer's market.
