Heritage Day.

Community Café: Book Talk with John Graham-Pole Wednesday, February 6th at 2 pm

Join us for a book talk by John Graham-Pole, child oncologist and author of his memoir Journeys With A Thousand Heroes. Tea, coffee and light snacks will be provided. All are welcome.

Paint Maud's House

Saturday, February 16th from noon – 4 pm

Have you had the opportunity to see Maud Lewis' house at the Art Gallery of Nova Scotia? Did you notice that she painted everywhere? Children are invited to drop by the library to help decorate a cardboard version of Maud's house in celebration of NS Heritage Day.

Channelling Maud Lewis: Art for Heart's Sake, with Anne Camozzi

Tuesday, February 19th at 1:00 pm

Presenting from her home via Facebook Live, local artist Anne Camozzi will speak briefly about how Maud Lewis influenced her own art especially as a distraction from pain and winter. She will also discuss how art and creativity help the brain and provide some demonstrations of simple ideas for relaxation that anyone can do from home with inexpensive materials. Participants can watch this presentation virtually via the People's Place Facebook page or gather at the library. Funding for this special program, was provided by the NS Department of Communities, Culture and Heritage.

African Drumming, Dance, and Stories

Saturday, February 23rd at 1:30 pm

Drop by and enjoy an afternoon program with the Maritime Centre for African Dance with live traditional and modern African dance, drumming, and storytelling. Come out and try it, as we celebrate African Heritage Month together. All are welcome.

Special Programs

Art On Display

This month will feature an art exhibit brought to Antigonish by the Breaking the Silence Network, with an opening reception taking place on February 5th at 6:30 pm.

The exhibit features portraits contributed by artists from around the world, commemorating and demanding justice for the lives of the 41 girls and young women killed in a fire at a state-run centre for children and youth in Guatemala on March 8, 2017. The exhibit will be on display from February 1st until February 9th.

The remainder of the month will showcase Familiar Opposites, a duo show by Janette Fecteau and Virginia Mulcaster, from February 11th to 28th, with an opening on February 14th at 6:30 pm.

All library programs and sessions are free, although some regular library programs require registration.

For more information, about programs & services, please call the library, (902) 863-4276 or visit online at www.parl.ns.ca.
