

CODE OF CONDUCT

Our Promise to You

- Library employees will provide respectful and professional service to all library users.
- Library employees will give each library user full and equal attention when making use of public library services and programs.
- Library employees will work to create library spaces that are welcoming and inclusive for the entire community.
- All interactions with library employees are strictly confidential.

Your Promise to Others and Library Employees

- Please be mindful and respectful of others using the library. We are a diverse community and the library welcomes everyone.
- Please be mindful and respectful of library employees, they are here to help you get the most from your visit.
- Conduct that is disruptive, unsafe, or prevents the enjoyment of the library by others is not permitted and you could be required to leave the premises.